Anyone who donates blood by deliberately giving false informations, e.g. withholding information regarding themselves belonging to a high risk group (see question 54/55) that places a third party at a risk for contracting AIDS-causing virus or Hepatitis B or Hepatitis C can be prosecuted by law.

I have answered all questions truthfully and have received, read and understood the "information about whole blood donation and your willingness to donate whole blood" about the clarification and consent of blood donors and possible risks. Furthermore, the doctor informed me about the purpose and use of my personal data. I had the opportunity to ask questions in the course of the conversation with the doctor.

I give my signed consent to a blood donation and to have my blood tested, including such testing which serves the promotion of scientific realizations in the area of health service and a blood donation used for transfusion. Any abnormal lab results will be passed on to my named doctor. The information regarding your family doctor is voluntary. In the event of an abnormal finding, it enables the prompt transmission of the findings to your physician. If you do not want to specify the family doctor, leave the field blank or delete the name you have already given.

I waive the issuance of the Information and Consent Form.
